CONGRESS
OF THE
UNITED STATES.
HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.

MONDAY, October 24.
Amendment of the Constitution.

The House resolved itself into a committee of the whole on the report of a select committee on propositions of amendment to the Constitution.

Mr. Varnum in the chair:
The report was read as follows:

Resolved, by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, two thirds of both Houses concurring, that the following article be proposed to the legislatures of the different states as an amendment to the constitution of the U. States, which, when ratified by three fourths of the said legislatures, shall be valid to all intents and purposes as a part of the said constitution.

In all future elections of President and Vice President the electors shall name in their ballots the person voted for as President, and in distinct ballots the person voted for as Vice President of whom one at least shall not be an inhabitant of the same state with themselves; the person having a majority of all the electors for President shall be the president; and if there shall be no such majority, the president shall be chosen from the highest numbers, not exceeding three, on the list for President, by the House of Representatives, in the manner directed by the constitution—the person having the greatest number of votes as Vice-President shall be the Vice-President, and in case of an equal number of votes for two or more persons for Vice-President, they being the highest on the list, the Senate shall choose the vice-president from those having such equal number, in the manner directed by the constitution.

Mr. Dawson observed that at the time of the adoption of the constitution, that part of it which related to the election of a President and Vice-President had been objected to; and evils, likely to occur, and be-foreseen by some gentlemen that day.— Experience had shown that they were not mistaken. Every gentleman in that house knew the situation in which the country had been placed by the controverted election of a chief magistrate; it was one which he trusted never would return. It had been a subject much reflected on by the people, and by the state legislatures, several of which had declared their approbation of the principle contained in the resolution reported by the committee. This house had two years since ratified a similar amendment by a constitutional majority of two thirds. At that time no objections were made to the principle of the amendment.
All the objection then made was on account of the lateness of the day and thinness of the house. Mr. Dawson considered it unnecessary to make any further remarks at that time, as he could not anticipate any objections that might be urged. He moved that the committee should rise and report the resolution without amendment.

Mr. J. Clay, though in favour of the principle of the amendment, was of opinion that, as to some of its parts, it required alteration. He therefore moved

"But if no person have such majority, then the House of Representatives shall immediately proceed to choose by ballot from the two persons having the greatest number of votes one of them for President; or if there be three or more persons having an equal number of votes then the House of Representatives shall, in like manner, from the persons having such equality of votes, choose a President; or if there be one person having a greater number of votes not being a majority of the whole number of electors appointed than any other person and two or more persons who have an equal number of votes one with the other, then the House of Representatives shall, in like manner, from among such persons having the greater number of votes and such other persons having an equality of votes, choose the President."

Mr. Van Cortlandt thought the amendment liable to objection.

Mr. G. W. Campbell, was in favour of the principle contained in the amendment.
He considered it to be the duty of that house in introducing an amendment to the constitution on this point to secure to the people the benefits of choosing the President so as to prevent a contravention of their will as expressed by electors chosen by them; resorting to legislative interposition only in extraordinary cases; and when this should be rendered necessary, so guarding the exercise of legislative power, that those only should be capable of legislative election who possessed a strong evidence of enjoying the confidence of the people.

This was the true spirit and principle of the constitution, whose object was, thro' the several organs of the government, faithfully to express the public opinion.
For this reason he was in favour of the proposed amendment. By it we shall make a less innovation on the spirit of the constitution than the rejecting it. And the adopting the report of the select committee. There were obvious reasons why the persons from whom a choice may be made, should be fewer in case of a designation of the office, than heretofore. At present the whole number of electoral votes is 176. As the constitution now stands, four candidates might have an equal number of votes, or three might have a majority, viz. 117 each. According to the proposed amendment, but one can have a majority, and if two persons should be equal and highest, it is not probable that the three candidate will have many votes.

Mr. Griswold said it was very difficult to ascertain the precise import of the amendment offered by the gentleman from Pennsylvania, by barely hearing it read from the chair. In the meaning therefore, which he gave it, he might perhaps be mistaken. If not mistaken, it involved a principle, and implied a change, which he had never before heard suggested on that floor, or in the part of the country from which he came. It is well known to every member that under the Constitution as it at present stands, the votes given for a President in this house are by states, and not according to the majority of the members of the whole body. The amendment as reported by the select committee, preserves its original feature of the Constitution by prescribing that the election shall be proceeded with as pointed out by the Constitution. But the present amendment varies this mode, according to which it is to be made without respect to states.
Of course a majority of the members are to decide. He submitted it to gentlemen, whether they were willing in this way to sacrifice the interests and rights of the smaller states. If this be the intention of gentlemen, we ought to have time to deliberate on the subject, before it is pressed to a decision. The gentleman from Pennsylvania will explain whether this is his intention.

Mr. J. Clay, begged leave explicitly to state, for the satisfaction of the gentleman from Connecticut, that it was not his intention to change that part of the constitution which prescribed that the votes should be by states; and if it would induce the gentleman to vote for the resolution he had moved, he would add the words of the constitution, viz.

"But in choosing the President, the votes shall be taken by states, the representation from each state having one vote; a quorum for this purpose shall consist of a member or members from two thirds of the states, and a majority of all the states shall be necessary to a choice."

These words were accordingly added.
Mr. Dawson observed, that this proposition had been submitted to the Select Committee, who had considered it more objectionable than that reported. Their object was to innovate as little as possible on the constitution. A great part of it referred to cases so extremely remote as were not likely to happen. The only material change it made was to reduce the number of persons from whom a choice should be made from three to two. At present the election for a President and Vice President was made from the five highest on the list. As according to the proposed amendment a designation of the persons voted for as President and Vice President was to be made, it was considered that by giving the three highest to the House of Representatives from which to choose a President, and the two highest to the Senate, from which to choose a Vice-President, the Constitution would not be changed. He hoped, therefore, the report of the Committee would be agreed to. He believed it comprehended all cases which were probable; and he further believed that if they spent a month they would not devise an amendment that would provide for all possible cases that may happen.

Wednesday, October 27.

The House was engaged until four o'clock in discussing the report of a select committee, as has been previously stated, on an amendment to the constitution, respecting designating the electoral votes given for President and Vice President. The debate developed great diversity of opinion as to the form of the amendment. After numerous propositions of amendment, which shall in giving the debate, be minutely stated, the report of the select committee, verbally amended, prevailed by a large majority.

Mr. Randolph, from the Committee of Ways and Means, reported a bill for carrying into effect the Louisiana convention; the bill directs the constitution of stock, according to the terms of the convention, and the delivery of the same to the agents authorized by the French government, after Louisiana shall have been taken possession of by the United States.

The bill was read twice, and referred to a committee of the whole to-morrow.

A bill was received from the Senate, enabling the President to take possession of Louisiana, and for the establishment of a temporary government over Louisiana, which was twice read and referred to the same committee.

Thursday, October 28.

Mr. Clay moved the commitment of the amendment to the constitution agreed to yesterday to a committee of the whole.

Carried without a division.
Mr. Lyon observed, that the country in which he lived had been for some time supplied with salt and lead from the Louisiana country, on which articles considerable and burdensome duties are imposed. For the purpose of liberating the citizens from these duties, he moved a resolution, declaring it expedient that provision should be made for suspending the collection of all duties on articles imported into the ports of the United States from the territory ceded to the U. States by the Louisiana Convention, with the view of having it submitted to the committee of Commerce and Manufactures.

Ordered to lie on the table.
On motion of Mr. J. Clay the house went into committee of the whole on the amendment of the Constitution. Mr. Varnum in the chair.

When Mr. J. Clay moved a substitute to the report of the select committee, by which the number of persons for whom the election of President shall be made by the House of Representatives is extended from three to five, and the language otherwise so altered as to conform to that of the Constitution.

This amendment was supported by Mr. Nicholson, and Mr. Elliot, and opposed by Mr.
Dawson, Mr. Smilie and Mr. Alston, and agreed to ayes 59, noes 47.

The committee immediately rose, and the house agreed to the report of the committee. Ayes 60.

When the amendment, so altered, was ordered to be engrossed for a third reading this day.
Mr. Randolph, from the committee of Ways and Means, reported a bill making provision for the payment of the claims of citizens of the United States, on the government of France, the payment of which has been assumed by the U. States in virtue of the convention with France of the 30th of April.

Read twice and referred to a committee of the whole to-morrow. On motion of Mr. Nicholson the house went into committee of the whole on the act from the Senate "to enable the president of the United States, to take possession of the territories ceded by France to the United States by the treaty concluded at Paris, on the 30th of April last; and for the temporary government thereof."

Mr. John C. Smith in the chair.
[This bill has already appeared in the Advertiser.

Mr. Randolph, after some preliminary remarks, moved to amend the 3d section of the bill, which came from the Senate as follows:

Section 2. And be it further enacted, That until congress shall have made provision for the temporary government of the said territories, all the military, civil and judicial powers, exercised by the officers of the existing governments of the same, shall be vested in such person and persons, and shall be exercised in such manner as the President of the United States shall direct.

By inserting after the word "until" the following words: "the expiration of the present session of congress, or unless provision for the temporary government be made by."

Mr. Griswold moved to strike out the whole of the second section, as vesting unconstitutional power in the president.

This motion was supported by Messrs. Griswold, Elliot, Chittenden, Dana, and Jackson, and opposed by Messrs. Randolph, Nicholson, Mitchell, Varnum, Leppa, Euatis, Smilie and Rodney.

The question on Mr. Griswold's motion to strike out the 2d section was then taken and lost —Ayes 30.

The committee rose and reported the bill without amendment.

Mr. Randolph moved to amend the 2d section by adding to the end thereof the following words: "for maintaining and protecting the inhabitants of Louisiana in the full enjoyment of their liberty, property and religion."

Agreed to without a division.
The bill was ordered to be engrossed for a third reading to-morrow.

On motion of Mr. Randolph, Resolved, that so much of the president's message as relates to permanent arrangements for the government of Louisiana be referred to a select committee.

Carried without a division.
Adjourned at 4 o'clock.

Dr. HAMILTON'S ELIXIR,

A sovereign remedy for Colds, Obsolete Coughs, Athmas, Catarrhs, Sore Throats, and Approaching Consumptions.

To parents who may have children afflicted with the HOOPING COUGH.

This discovery is of the first magnitude, as it is an immediate relief, checks the progress, and in a short time entirely removes the most cruel disorder to which children are liable—the Elixir is so perfectly agreeable and the dose so small, that no difficulty arises in taking it.

From LUTHER MARTIN, Esq. Attorney General of the State of Maryland.

Gentlemen,
I comply with your request in stating my opinion of Hamilton's Elixir. It has been used in my family for two or three years past, with uniform success, whenever colds, coughs, or similar complaints have rendered medicine necessary. I have myself found it an excellent and agreeable remedy for a very painful and troublesome affection of the breast, accompanied with forecords and with obstructed and difficult breathing.

On these accounts, I do not hesitate to recommend Hamilton's Elixir, as a valuable medicine, and deserving public attention.

LUTHER MARTIN.

Mr. Abijah Henly, Bridge-Street, Baltimore, was cured by one bottle of Hamilton's Elixir of a very complicated disorder, occasioned by a severe cold caught several months ago. He breathed with the greatest difficulty, and was often thrown into weakening sweats when he attempted to walk any distance, and his voice would frequently fail in such a degree that he could only attempt to whisper. He has been upwards of six weeks without a return of his complaints, and desires to give this public testimony in favour of this invaluable medicine.

Dr. Hamilton's GRAND RESTORATIVE,

Is recommended as an invaluable medicine, for the speedy relief and permanent cure of the various complaints which result from dissipated pleasures—juvenile indiscretions—refuge in climates unfavourable to the constitution—the immoderate use of tea, frequent intoxication, or any other destructive intemperance—the unskilful or excessive use of mercury—the diseases peculiar to females, at a certain period of life—bad lyings in, &c. &c.

And is proved by long and extensive experience to be absolutely unparalleled in the cure of Nervous disorders, Consumptions, Lowness of spirits, Loss of appetite, Impurity of the blood, Hysterical affections, Inward weakness, Seminal weakness, Fluoribus, (or whites) Barrenness,	Violent cramps in the stomach and back, Indigestion, Melancholy, Gout in the stomach, Pains in the limbs, Relaxations, Involuntary emissions, Obstinate gleets, Impotency, &c. &c.

In cases of extremity, where the long prevalence and obstinacy of disease has brought on a general impoverishment of the system, excessive debility of the whole frame, and a wasting of the flesh, which no nourishment or cordial could repair a perseverance in the use of this medicine has performed the most astonishing cures.

HAMILTON'S ESSENCE AND EXTRACT OF MUSTARD,

A safe and effectual remedy for gout, rheumatism, pal-ley, sprains, bruises, pains in the face and neck, &c.
And has performed more cures in the above complaints than all the other medicines ever made public.

From Dr. Weatherburn, Wythe county, Virginia.

Gentlemen,
I purchased at your shop the preparations you call Hamilton's Essence, or Extract of Mustard, which I believe has perfectly removed a chronic rheumatism (of that kind named sciatica, or of the hip joint) under which I had laboured for a long time, and which had baffled every article in the Materia Medica, and every mode of treatment received into practice for the cure of this obstinate disease. If you think this letter useful you are at liberty to make it public.

Yours, &c.

P. WEATHERBURN.

John Hoover, rope maker, South Second Street, between Mary and Christian Streets, Philadelphia, voluntarily makes oath as follows, namely, that his wife, Mary Hoover, was so severely afflicted with a violent rheumatism, very dangerously situated, the consequence of a severe cold after lying in, as to be confined to her bed for several weeks, and was at length reduced to the melancholy apprehension of remaining a cripple for life, notwithstanding the most respectable medical advice was followed, and every probable remedy attempted: when seeing several cases of cures performed by Hamilton's Essence and Extract of Mustard, they were procured from Mr. Birch, No. 17, South Second Street.
The first application enabled her to walk across the room, and the use of one bottle restored her to her usual state of health and strength.

Sworn and subscribed before Ebenezer Foran, Esq. one of the judges of the peace for Philadelphia County.

HAMILTON'S

WORM DESTROYING LOZENGES.

Which have within four years past cured upwards of one hundred and twenty thousand persons of both sexes, of every age, and in every situation, of various dangerous complaints arising from worms, and from obstructions or foulness in the stomach and bowels.

This medicine bears no analogy whatever of similar title, so commonly complained of as operating with violence; on the contrary, particular excellence of this remedy is its being suited to every age and constitution; contains nothing but what is perfectly innocent, and is so mild in its operation that it cannot injure the most delicate pregnant lady, or the tenderest infant of a week old, should no worms exist in the body; but will, without pain or griping, cleanse the stomach and bowels of whatever is foul or offensive, and thereby prevent the production of worms and many fatal disorders. They are particularly efficacious in carrying off all gross humours and eruptions; feverish and bilious complaints, and are the safest and mildest purgative that can be used on any occasion.

Description of Worms, and the symptoms by which they are known.

Worms which infest the human body, are chiefly of four kinds, viz. the Tere or large round worm, the Ascarides, or small narrow worm, the Cucurbitina, or short, flat, white worm, and lastly, the Tania, or tape worm, so called from its resemblance to a tape: this is often many yards long, and is full of joints—it is most hurtful, and most difficult to cure.

Among the symptoms attending worms, are disagreeable breath, especially in the morning—Bad and corrupted gums—itching in the nose and about the feet—Convulsions and epileptic fits, and sometimes privation of speech—tasting and grinding of the teeth in sleep—Irr-regular appetite, sometimes loathing food, and sometimes voracious—Purging, with slimy and foetid stools—Vomiting—Large and hard belly—Pains and sickness at the stomach—Pains in the head and thighs, with lowness of spirits—Slow fever, with small and irregular pulse—A dry cough—Excessive thirst—Sometimes pale and unhealthy countenance, and sometimes the face bloated and flushed.

Persons afflicted with any of the above symptoms, should have immediate recourse to HAMILTON'S WORM DESTROYING LOZENGES, which have been constantly attended with success in all complaints similar to those above described.

A dose of this medicine given occasionally during the warm season, will effectually prevent the vomiting and purging of children, a dreadful disorder which annually destroys thousands of the infant part of our cities. It is likewise the mildest and most certain remedy known and has restored to health and strength a great number when in an advanced stage of this fatal complaint. Particular and plain instructions are given for every part of the necessary treatment in such cases.

Children generally take this medicine with eagerness; having a pleasing appearance, and an agreeable taste.

CASES OF CURES—by Hamilton's Worm Destroy- ing Lozenges.

(Selected from thousands) the authenticity of which any person may ascertain, either by letter or personal application.

TAPE WORM.

Mr. SAMUEL FULLER inn-keeper, on the Harford road, ten miles from Baltimore, began about 20 months ago to be grievously afflicted with a tape worm, which increased fast in size and strength, so as to excite the most horrid sensations by its writhing motions and intolerable pains, resembling the gnawing and tearing of his bowels, which deprived him of his necessary sleep, and caused such dreadful apprehensions as cannot be conceived but by one in a similar situation—his appetite wavered rapidly, and with that his strength, so that he was unable to attend to any business—when he heard of some excellent cures performed by Hamilton's worm lozenges, he took a large dose, which brought away about FOUR YARDS of the worm (now in the possession of Lee & Co.)—but a renewal of his pains soon convinced him that this monstrous reptile had recovered its first vigour—Application was made to Lee & Co. for more of their medicine, with their advice—from which resulted the total expulsion of his formidable enemy, in several pieces, which he supposed to be SIX or EIGHT YARDS more. A few months have since elapsed, and Mr. Fuller is now in perfect health. The above facts are well known to a numerous circle of his neighbours, and himself will gladly any who may wish to make further inquiries on the subject. Although Hamilton's worm lozenges produce such powerful effects, when necessary, yet they are perfectly innocent and mild in their operation on the human body, even taken in large doses, as Mr. Fuller will testify—their particular mildness is abundantly evident in innumerable cures of infants.

Communicated by Dr. John Spangler, Yorktown, Pennsylvania.

Letter from the reverend Mr. JOHN MOTHER, minister of the Moravian church, in York-town.
York, January 4th, 1802.

Dear Sir,
Dr. Hamilton's lozenges have been recommended to me as a very adequate means for the cure of children afflicted with worms. I procured a box for the use of my family, to try, whether by means of this medicine, I might be enabled to gain a point, which, to accomplish, different other means had proved abortive. My eldest boy had a very sickly appearance, was very restless at night, grew leaner from time to time; in short, he seemed to be in a precarious state of health, which would yield to none of the medicines administered, until I gave him two doses of lozenges, agreeably to the directions, which carried off a tubercle to all appearance a mercurial but upon close inspection quite repelled with very small living animals. Not one of the sort of worms which usually afflict children came from him. Since that period he grew remarkably better in health, and though lean, has got a fresh and lively complexion. Upon different occasions I have used this medicine as a purgative substitute, and found it to answer exceedingly well, without bringing on belly-ache, or any of those disagreeable sensations, so often occasioned by purging medicines. Upon the which I judge this medicine to be, besides its main object, one of the most salutary means for restoring lost appetite, and promoting a proper state of digestion, by carrying off that bilious substance, which engenders so much indisposition both among children and adults.

I am, Sir, your most obedient servant,
JOHN MOTHER.
